Exhibition Title

2017-18 Arp Museum Bahnhof Rolandseck, Henry Moore: Vision, Creation, Obsession

More Information

Henry Moore: Vision, Creation, Obsession presents a selection of monumental sculptures and works on paper from our collections at the stunning Arp Museum Bahnhof Rolandseck, overlooking the Rhine in western Germany. The exhibition will be accompanied by three smaller displays. The first presents a Moore-Arp conversation, focused on their work in the 1930s. Another tells the story of Large Two Forms at the Ministry for Economic Development and Cooperation in nearby Bonn. The final space presents a dialogue with the Old Master works in the Rau Collection for UNICEF, one of the museum's permanent collections. Co-curated by Sebastiano Barassi and Oliver
