More Information

Sketchbook of cream medium weight laid paper 204 x 165mm containing 24 pages numbered upper right on the recto; they are unsigned and undated. Also known as No.1 Design Notebook. In late 1942 or early 1943 Moore was asked by Zika Ascher, the Czech textile manufacturer, to produce ideas for fabric designs. Some designs were produced as samples and a number of these went into production. Where identified, the drawings have been cross-referenced to the textiles using the Foundation's prefix TEX.
