Description

Review of Leicester Galleries exhibition (See 0009327), quoting from Epstein's introduction. Reviewer presents both views of Moore: They recline massively and cause one to ponder in silence upon the effect they would produce if they were to assume an upright posture...it is to be hoped...he will not move any further towards the primitive and the ugly. Sculptural talent such as he undoubtedly possesses...is too rare to be allowed to waste itself on the execution of the merely bizarre.""
