

Henry Moore Bibliography - Detailed Report

Page of 0023043

Item Type

Video/Audio

Title

BBC Radio 4 Front Row

Publisher

British Broadcasting Corporation

Place Published

London

Date & Collation

9 minutes 24 seconds.A266

Year

2005

Description

On the occasion of the exhibition of Henry Moore and the Challenge of Architecture, at The Henry Moore Foundation, Perry Green. Front Row presenter Mark Lawson interviews with Timothy Llewellyn, conservator Malcolm Woodward and curator Anita Feldman Bennet; Mirror Knife Edge 1977 bronze (LH 714); The Arch 1979-80 travertine (LH 503c) in Kensington Gardens, London; Moore as Yorkshire man; visit to Perry Green; Bourne Maquette Studio (collection of stones and flints); Moore didn't want sculpture to be sub-servient to architecture. In response to the deterioration of The Arch, Italian American tycoon Carlo Bilotti met the Royal Parks to offer to buy the sculpture and replace it with a replica. This was denied.