Description

Catalogue of the first major outdoor exhibition of Moore work since 1978. The exhibition at the Royal Botanic Gardens at Kew consists of 28 monumental works sited throughout the grounds and a selection of maquettes and found objects in the Nash Conservatory. The catalogue contains a wealth of photographs and detailed information about each piece displayed in the grounds, as well as biographical and bibliographical information. Welcome by Professor Stephen Hopper, Director of the Royal Botanic Gardens and a Foreword by Richard Calvocoressi, Director of the Henry Moore Foundation.
