Description

Matthew Collings presents a tribute to curator and art critic David Sylvester 1924-2001. Focuses mainly on Alberto Giacometti, and film interviews with Francis Bacon.
Includes 45 seconds in which Nicholas Serota recalls the 1968 Henry Moore exhibition curated by David Sylvester (See 0005063). This is illustrated with black-and-white photographs.
(David Sylvester was Henry Moore's secretary in the 1960s, and he became a trustee of the Henry Moore Foundation in the 1990s).
Broadcast on BBC2 on 23 Aug 2001, and recorded off-air under Clause 75 of the Copyright Act 1988.
