

Henry Moore Bibliography - Detailed Report

Page of

| 0003122

Item Type

Video/Audio

Title

Recollections of Herbert Read.

Publisher

British Broadcasting Corporation

Place Published

London

Date & Collation

5 min extract.Sound recording.

Year

1977

Description

Radio 3 broadcast 4 Dec 1977. Interviewer Basil TAYLOR. Written and presented by Hugh Sykes DAVIES. Contributions by Henry MOORE, totalling about 5 minutes, include how he welcomed Surrealism as an antidote to pure abstraction which neither he nor Read believed in completely. Moore spoke of Read as champion of contemporary art in England at a time when modern art needed the support of critics. Moore also mentions Read's scholarship and dedication.