

Henry Moore Bibliography - Detailed Report

Page of 0020617

Item Type

Book

Title

The Civil Service Rifles in the Great War; 'All Bloody Gentlemen'.

Author/Editor

KNIGHT Jill.

Publisher

Pen & Sword Military

Place Published

Barnsley

Date & Collation

240pp.Illus.Index.

Year

2004

Description

Henry Moore p.113,116,120,131,146,224,237. Moore is mentioned in Chapter 5 The Ypres Salient and Broulon Wood 1916-1917, where his friend Douglas Houghton remembers being seperated from Moore when Houghton was sent to the 6th Londons while Moore went to the Civil Service Rifles;
Chapter 6 Reversals of Fortune: France 1918;
Chapter 10 Return to the Western Front, 1918 and is illustrated on p.116 together with a quotation '...on the whole I enjoyed the Army'.