

Henry Moore Bibliography - Detailed Report

---

Page of | 0015660

Item Type

Book

Title

Letters of Frances Hodgkins; edited by Linda GILL.

Author/Editor

HODGKINS Frances.

Publisher

Auckland University Press

Place Published

Auckland

Date & Collation

x,584pp.Plates.Bibliog.Biog.Index.

Year

1993

Description

Selection from letters of New Zealand painter mostly in the Alexander Turnbull Library, Wellington. The introduction notes a 1945 exhibition with Moore and others (See 0015708). It also quotes Moore's statement from Ascent, Dec 1969: One could recognize a Frances Hodgkins from a long distance purely by colour alone" The editor also notes links with Moore at the Lefevre Gallery The Seven and Five Society Hampstead in the 1930's.In a 1944 letter to Myfanwy Evans Frances Hodgkins appreciated Grigson's tribute to Moore in the Penguin Modern Painters series (See 0008952).Moore is also mentioned in a 1945 letter to Eardley Knollys and Jane Saunders when Hodgkins wished to buy a war drawing for a friend."