Description

Article publicising the exhibition 'Henry Moore: Shadows on the Wall' at The Gilbert and Ildiko Butler Drawings Gallery, The Courtauld, London, 8th June - 22nd September 2024. The exhibition of Shelter Drawings that Moore produced during the blitz, and which documented the many people who sheltered in Underground Stations, gives the article a vehicle in which to draw comparisons between the spirit of war time patriotism and the current challenges that Britain faces in the run up to the July 2024 election.
