More Information

Whitechapel Gallery presents a 100-year survey of the studio through the work of artists and image-makers from around the world. Bringing together more than 100 works by over 80 artists and collectives from Africa, Australasia, South Asia, China, Europe, Japan, the Middle East, North and South America, the exhibition includes paintings, sculptures, installations and films depicting the studio as work of art and presents documentation of artists' studios by world-renowned photographers and film-makers. A series of 'studio corners' also recreate the actual environments where great art has been produced. A selection of 8 pieces by Henry Moore demonstrate the works development in the studio from found object to bronze.
