Exhibition Title

2025 Perry Green, Sculpture in the Landscape at Henry Moore Studios & Gardens

More Information

Works on view this year include some of Moore's most famous sculptures, Family Group, 1948-9, King and Queen, 1952-3 and the monumental Large Reclining Figure, 1983-4, developed from a 33 cm long maquette made nearly five decades earlier. The Henry Moore Foundation continues to put an annually changing selection of sculpture on view at Perry Green. This year it will accompany the Encounters season of talks, tours and performances, for more information on these events see <https://henry-moore.org/whats-on/encounters/>.

Exhibition Info

At the Henry Moore Studios and Gardens in 2025 twenty-five of Moore's sculptures, including two new loans, will be displayed in the landscape where the artist lived and worked for more than forty years. The works span themes Moore explored for the length of his career; the reclining figure, mother and child and internal/external forms.
